

Marrin Gamu - 'The Body Song'

The words 'Marrin' and 'Gamu' mean 'body' in the Kalaw Kawaw Ya (Torres Strait) and Wiradjuri (NSW) languages, as the title of a song created by First Languages Australia to translate and perform.

http://marringamu.com.au/marringamu_resources/

Includes examples, words, backing track, and sheet music

Mixed languages video: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=pt0ImTUfNIc>

Gamilaraay

GR Example: Tamworth South Public School (2018)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=O8-E9hZes2o>

For Gamilaraay pronunciation: GadjiGadji phone app, or online dictionary at <https://dnathan.com/gaman/> (Select 'max' view)

NB If they are standing up, children can turn around in a circle between each verse, or dance! It's also fun to add clapsticks.

mil - eye

bina – ear

mara - hand

dhina – foot

buyu - leg

bungun – arm

gawugaa –head

mubal – stomach